Donna Karan

Winter white for your bed

If any designer could marry serenity and sensuality, it's Donna Karan. Modern Classics, her new bedding collection, takes luxurious understatement to the next level. Treat yourself to the textural intrigue of couture details—pleated cotton sheets, fancifully embroidered pillows, quilted silk as light as air—in subtle palettes like White Gold, shown ($125–$500; at Bloomingdale's; bloomingdales.com)

Lillian August

New partnerships. New traditions.

"Traditional fabrics are a wonderful way to add drama and color to a neutral background," counsels this tried-and-true talent. "I love the punch of melon damask pillows on a linen sofa. Last fall, Lillian partnered with Hickory White (hickorywhite.com), introducing classically elegant furniture, antique reproductions, and customizable upholstery. Now, she joins with Fabricut (fabricut.com) for her Townhouse fabric collection. Inspired by archival documents, she
