Easy Modern

All the Beige

NO LONGER PLAYING IT SAFE, THIS NEUTRAL IS SHOWING OFF ITS SASSY SIDE.

Behrouz Holak's graphic Craze rug sets the scene from the ground up (6' x 9', $6,000; StyleBK.it). Autoben's sleek box sofa supplies a modern take on mid-century shapes (27" l x 31 1/2" d x 27 1/2" h, $2,725; info@TheFuturePerfect.com).

COLORWAYS

Organic Pure Comfort cotton bedding from pureDKNY (from $75/two pillowcases; Bloomingdales.com).

Reproduction Teco Art pottery (13" h x 11" dia, $180, 4 1/2" h x 5 1/2" dia, $60; Prairie-Arts.com).

"Even neutrals have a hue. You need to be careful when layering beiges to make sure they have the same parent color, or they'll clash."

— Jill Pilaroscia, principal color consultant, Colour Studio

PAINT CHIPS

Naoto Fukasawa's Humidifier Version III resembles a water droplet (6" h x 12" dia, $260; Dynamism.com).

Interior designer Elliot Angle mixes and matches beiges in a Los Angeles bedroom.

Lee's Ottoman in Belize flax linen (17" h x 23" w x 23" d, $590; Lee Industries.com).

"Use beige with watermelon pinks, pistachio greens or red-hot orange. It can be paired with anything, and it's the style of all things preppy."

— Carl D'Aguzzo, designer
